This chart includes, for each state, the number of immersion schools, the number of districts with immersion schools, and the number of private immersion schools. Also included is the number of immersion schools at each level (pre-school, elementary, middle, and high school). To categorize the immersion schools by level in each state, we used the terminology used by the schools (e.g., if the school was called a junior high or middle school, it was included in the middle school column). For those schools that included more than one level (e.g., K-8 or K-12), we included them in all the relevant columns (for a K-8 school, we listed them under elementary school and middle school; for a K-12 school, we listed them under elementary, middle, and high school).
